we make it possible

Stand out from the crowd with Harrison Drury.

Start your career with one of the North West's most respected and regarded law firms

Earn while you learn.

A legal apprenticeship is an exciting way to kick start your career in law.

Start your career with one of the North West's most respected and regarded law firm who have recently been successful for a fifth time placing in the Top 100 Companies to work for in the UK.

What is a Legal Apprenticeship?

A legal apprenticeship integrates study with on the job training. This is an excellent opportunity to qualify as a solicitor whilst gaining valuable and varied work experience in a challenging yet supportive legal environment. The apprenticeship provides a salary and the chance to develop a long-term career at one of North West's leading law firms.

Our Programme

The six-year HD legal apprenticeship programme steadily builds towards qualification as a solicitor by studying initially the Level 3 Paralegal and then Level 7 Solicitor apprenticeships. This is the same time period as qualifying through the traditional route.

Already a graduate?

Apply to join our graduate legal apprenticeship programme straight from university and jump onto the programme at a later stage.

What are we looking for?

Ambitious and hardworking candidates who want to build rewarding careers in a challenging yet supportive environment. If you have already successfully completed or are studying towards your LPC / SEQ 1 please apply for a training contract.

Entry requirements

Candidates should have a strong academic and extra-curricular record.

- Legal Apprenticeship: BBB A level (or equivalent) and 5 grade 5 GCSEs or above.
- Graduate Legal Apprenticeship: as above, and a 2:1 law degree or GDL and 2:1 non-law degree.
